

WELCOME TO ICANS XIX

The 19th Meeting of the International Collaboration on Advanced Neutron Sources (ICANS-XIX), hosted by the Paul Scherrer Institut, PSI, Switzerland, will be held from March 8–12, 2010 in Grindelwald, Switzerland

ICANS, dating back to 1977, is an informal network of more than 15 institutions worldwide, providing a forum for scientists and engineers to study and exchange information on the progress and developments in conjunction with accelerator- and reactor-based neutron sources. The attention of the Collaboration is on the subjects of accelerator development, source (target) and moderator development, and neutron scattering instrumentation techniques.
